

PERSONAL DETAILS

Born in Wakefield in 1938, married to Marlane for 48 years, Terry has two grown-up daughters and three grandsons. A keen golfer who claims his handicap increases at the same rate as his hairline recedes!

CAREER

Terry has spent the majority of his adult life working overseas. Educated at Rothwell Grammar School he joined the Royal Navy as a boy in 1954 and served in various parts of the world, mainly in the Mediterranean and Far East. On leaving the Royal Navy he joined GCHQ at Bletchly Park in 1966 and was employed in number of locations, the majority of which were overseas. However, one of the locations was Scarborough, where he retired in 1996.
